Fresh Fish Workers Mull New Offer

Pending a new offer by cannery operators, strike vote of 700 fresh fish and cold storage workers has been postponed by the UFAWU. The union had requested a government-supervised strike vote in late August after the operators — Canadian Fishing, BC Packers, and J. H. Todd and Sons — rejected a conciliation board report.

The new offer: 10¢ hourly raise for all experienced male classifications this year and an additional 5¢ next year; 10¢ hourly boost for women this year and 2¢ next year. The operators have asked for a two-year contract with a 40-hour week beginning May 1, 1955.

Coast locals are considering the offer and will probably vote on it later this month. Conciliation board had recommended 13¢ increase this year and additional 2¢ next.

Gillnetters Await Adams Sockeye

B.C. gillnet fishermen are sweeping their nets through almost empty waters as they wait for the big Adams River sockeye run to move out of the protected fishing area to the mouth of the Fraser.

Catches during the week of Sept. 6 in the only area open to fishing at the Fraser's mouth have ranged from light to average. Gillnetters will probably have to wait until around Sept. 20 before they "hit the jackpot."

To date, Canadian and American fishermen have netted a total of more than eight and one-half million sockeye. Before the end of the run, the total is likely to rise to the 10 million mark.

Bakeries Tie-up Continues

Indefinite continuation of the major bakeries tie-up threatened following union rejection of a settlement formula proposed by a mediator. Management was willing to accept the mediation formula.

The mediator recommended a 4¢ hourly wage increase for male employees and 2½¢ for females, with a 25¢ hourly compensation for night work between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m.

He rejected union demands for a third week's vacation for employees with 4 or more years of service. He also recommended that the union accept the welfare plan offered by the companies.

Nisei Festival

JAPANESE LANTERNS danced like small golden moons as the summer wind came down San Pedro Street, and every now and then a red or yellow balloon would escape from a child's hand and float upward toward the stars. We stood on the curb waiting for the last night of the 14th annual Nisei festival to begin.

A little boy, wearing a pink lei, perched high on his father's shoulders turned around to watch the crowds passing down the sidewalk. His eyes widened as he watched another child lugging a huge purple panda and he turned to see a little girl in a brightly colored kimono make her way through a row of people to reach her group forming in the street.

Then the band began to play. Japanese Boy Scouts, led by a handsome youth, radiant with enthusiasm for his musicians, marched past. Flags flying. Drums beating. And peace and joy and good will filled the hearts of the people lining San Pedro Street in Old Los Angeles.

The little boy on his father's shoulder looked down at three little [illegible] cotton candy — three little girls dressed just alike [illegible], gray skirts, and white saddle oxfords. Suddenly [illegible] left the crowd and he squared away to face the street. [illegible] started, and we knew that he could see from his high perch [illegible] dancers were coming.

[illegible] butterflies they came, opening and closing their [illegible] orchid and rose and blue and gold and green. American [illegible] girls, dancing the lovely rhythms from Old Japan in their [illegible] kimonos, and each face alight with joy.

[illegible] stilled. The dancers stood. A clear [illegible] speaker . . . "A little boy lost." Then a laugh . . . "N[illegible] . . . a mother lost." And the girls who had [illegible] a week for two summer months waited. Then [illegible] . . . mother found." Music — and the dance [illegible]

13TH JACL CONFAB ENDS SUCCESSFULLY

Dore Schary Urges Nisei Not to Lose Diversity; Sgt. Hershey Miyamura Named Nisei of Biennium

LOS ANGELES. — The 13th National JACL Convention, "New Horizons", was officially opened on Sept. 2 with Opening Ceremonies highlighted by keynote speaker Dore Schary of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, and concluded after a hectic five days with the Convention Banquet and "Sayonara Ball" on Monday evening, Sept. 6.

Feature speaker of the Opening Ceremonies, Dore Schary, director of Productions and Studio operations of MGM, expressed a special interest in the Japanese Americans (as demonstrated by the filming of "Go For Broke"). He expressed his strong belief that America has remained strong and triumphant because of the individuality of citizens and groups.

Schary urged Nisei "do not lose your diversity, but lend your diversity to the American scene — Bring all that is good and bountiful of your Japanese inheritance to this, our American scene, and take from the crucible that is America those things which are offered you."

In speaking of special pleadings, Schary urged the JACL to continue to speak out for objectives in the interests of persons of Japanese ancestry. He stated "Mike Masaoka, as a Japanese American interested in your special problems, is as American as Ralph Bunche, who serves his nation and his people the same way as do Bernard Baruch and President Eisenhower, in their service and devotion to the common cause."

Ex-Sgt. Hiroshi Miyamura of Gallup, N.M., honour guest of the Convention, led the audience of more than 500 people in a moment of silent tribute in memory of fallen comrades.

Miyamura, only living Medal of Honor winner of Japanese ancestry, was presented with the Nisei of the Biennium award (for distinguished community leadership) at the Convention Banquet to climax the National Confab.

Greetings from President Eisenhower to the 13th National Convention, expressing best wishes for a most successful convention, were read.

Dr. Roy M. Nishikawa, convention chairman, extended a welcome to delegates and guests, speaking of the "New Horizons" theme, seriously stating that the future of the JACL lies ahead.

"Although legal and legislative goals have been achieved," stated Dr. Nishikawa, "we need to translate these into realities on the practical level."

Hon. John F. Aiso, judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court, delivered the principal address at the overflow Issei Recognitions Banquet, honouring the newly-naturalized Issei citizens. More than 500 attended.

Judge Aiso spoke of the history of the Issei in America, praising their lifetime of toil and contribution to the American scene.

"For the average Issei," he stated, "the accolade of American citizenship is the crowning achievement of over 50 years of rugged pioneering life. It has been a life that called for rugged constitutions, indomitable courage, realism, optimism, hope, and visions of new horizons."

Hon. Goodwin J. Knight, Governor of California, was the featured speaker of the Convention Banquet on Sept. 6. Speaking before an assembled crowd of more than 400, Gov. Knight lauded the accomplishments of the Issei in California, and declared, "their greatest gift to our State and our nation, is you, the Nisei."

"I very much feel that persons of Japanese ancestry," he declared, "have contributed substantially to the benefit of our people, our State and our nation."

The 1954-56 National JACL Cabinet was elected and sworn in at the Recognitions Banquet, grand finale of the 13th Confab. George Inagaki of Venice, Calif., was re-elected for his second term as National president.

Honolulu Issei Doctor First Naturalized JA To Stand for Office

HONOLULU. — Dr. Kuniyasu Daifuku, 65, of Daifuku Hospital, an Issei naturalized in March of 1953, after passage of the McCarran Immigration-Naturalization Act, has thrown his hat in the ring for nomination as a Republican candidate in the lower house.

Born in Okayama prefecture, Dr. Daifuku is believed to be the first naturalized Japanese American to stand for public office.

2 More Canucks Back With Japanese Brides; Proud of Their Mates

VANCOUVER. — A vigorous defense of interracial marriages was put up by Private Reid Cook, who, with his wife Yasue, stopped over for a few hours over the Sept. 5 weekend enroute from Japan to his home at Kyle, Sask.

"If more people of different races got married," said Cook, "individuals wouldn't be so quick to criticize someone of another creed." Cook said he favoured intermarriage as a means of settling the world's co-existence problem.

Also on the homeward journey were Sergeant Robert Matte of Montreal, his wife Chikako, and their cute eight-months-old daughter Doris.

"If a man can face a year in Korea, with all its hardships and inconveniences," observed Sergeant Matte, "then it should be easy to face a few curious Canadians for a while."

3,000 Stage Welcome For Kamloops Band In Spite of Rain

KAMLOOPS, B.C. — Rain washed out the official homecoming ceremonies for the world-title-winning Kamloops High School Band on Sept. 3, but the 18 girls and 34 boys were received by 3,000 relatives and admirers.

Welcoming ceremonies were postponed until Sept. 7, but warmth of the homecoming got a big lift when the Kamloops Elks Band played the teen-agers off the train at Kamloops Junction.

At Kerkrade, Holland, the school band tied an adult band for [illegible] in open competition, and received extra marks because of their age, to break the deadlock. The Kamloops group won the marching competition, much to their surprise, since they hadn't done any marching while playing until last February.

COALDALE NISEI WINS ALTA U. SCHOLARSHIP

LETHBRIDGE. — Margaret M. Sogeda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sadao Sogeda of Coaldale, was announced last week as one of 17 Southern Albertans awarded a $500 Alberta Hotel Association scholarship tenable at the University of Alberta. Miss Sogeda has received a scholarship for each of the past three school terms.

London, Ont. — General Council of United Church of Canada brands racial intolerance "un-Christian and un-Democratic."

Vancouver. — Government policy on Japanese problem should be extended to exclude all Japanese from British Columbia at war's end, says pensions and national health minister Ian MacKenzie, Liberal candidate for Vancouver Centre.

Vernon, B.C. — If tremendous apple crop of Okanagan valley this year is to be fully harvested, it will be largely due to Japanese labour, says Vancouver Province.

To a Teacher — Grade One

I DELIVER unto you one small boy. His mother thinks him still a little child. You must forgive her that, for in the past five and a half years, they have been very close, my wife and my small son. He is a child conceived of our great yearning and our great love.

He goes to you stout-hearted because he yet believes the world to be a lovely place, its people good. For that trust we, my wife and I, are responsible. For that trust of his, we are to blame — if trust be bad.

And yet, today, for one brief moment he faltered. For one small moment he wavered between that new place called "School" and the familiar things of his childhood. His mother shall not know of this. I knew he would. It is a secret between us. He has been taught to be unafraid. Please keep him that way.

He goes to you now, out of our compact, private world to the bigness which is life itself. It can be a land of widening horizons, each one brighter than the one before. Or it can be stagnant, middling plains.

I expect no special favours for this small boy. I would not thank you for shielding him forever from hurt. I would not thank you for blinding his eyes to ugliness. These things exist.

We have taught this boy certain things which we believe essential.

He has no prejudices. The world to him — the whole wide world — is a lovely place. He knows naught of pedigree or wealth, position or the importance of material things. He is stranger to all this — having never been taught these things. But he loves all living things, be they stray dogs, wild birds or strange people.

He knows no cant. He simply believes that which he has witnessed. He knows beauty never dies. And that love begets love. He has watched the flowers bloom each spring, lovelier than the spring before. He has seen the birds and bees and babies multiply in harmony. He needs no [illegible] cant. [illegible] teach him any[illegible]

He knows [illegible] suspicion nor distrust. Strangeness [illegible] wering fear in him. His curiosity [illegible] differences of his small [illegible], each difference with its own special goodness. To him the [illegible] in the middle. He loves [illegible] Jewish [illegible] Asian [illegible] He has [illegible] morningness [illegible] made [illegible]

He knows [illegible] [illegible] anger. He [illegible] instilled in [illegible] of gentleness [illegible]

And yet he is all boy, [illegible]

[illegible]

Toronto JCCA Invites Public to Welcoming Party for Consulate

TORONTO. — The local chapter of JCCA will hold a welcoming party for the Japanese Consul, Mr. Kenzo Yoshida, and Vice-Consul Mr. Eiichi Uchida, and for their families, on Saturday, September 25, at the Golden Dragon, starting at 6 p.m.

Those wishing to attend are requested to contact one of: Mr. T. Kaneoka, the Continental Tours, or The New Canadian not later than Sept. 22. Fee will be $2.50 per person.

Mr. Yoshida is contemplating making visits to Montreal, Fort William, and Hamilton after he becomes more settled down in his Toronto quarters.

While stationed in Toronto, Mr. Yoshida presides as Japanese consul for Ontario, Quebec, and the eastern Maritime provinces. Mr. S. Hirota, who operates out of Vancouver, covers all Canada from Manitoba to the west coast.

was being carried home to bed, we wandered up and down the lanterned streets going into the little shops under the bright paper birds and the swinging wind-chimes. We looked at all the teacups and bowls, imported things, cream colored with a shadow of green pine bow or a bend of bamboo — designed by a people that know the wonder of a leaf!

Back under the moon lanterns we shared the happiness of friends greeting friends. We watched a small tot trying to carry her giant red panda on her shoulders as she had seen fathers holding up their children for the parade. Her parents laughed and each took a panda ear to steady it as the little family walked home.

We walked back to our car and talked of coming again next summer to this wonderful festival of friendship and good will.

イギリスに對する感情

彼等の英國に對する忠誠はかように觀察するときに感情的というよりも理智的なものといえる。それは「フランスは我等の母であり、イギリスは我等の義母である」という句を以て彼等の心理が適當に表現されるところである。[illegible]英國に對する忠誠[illegible]

英系のカナダ人と佛系の間の關係は感情的にそれほど微妙である。佛系は英系に對し程度の差はあるがアメリカニズムに對する危惧と同じようなものを[illegible]化をおそれる氣持がある。[illegible]に從來[illegible]權利を失うのではないかと[illegible]

[illegible]教會と國家との關係がこれ以上に理想的になるところは他には存在しないといわれている[illegible]

は、英系カナダ人側に對して心配をもたらなかった[illegible]ない。英系は佛系の[illegible]

[illegible]は氣持の上ではオタワの連邦政府によるよりも英國議會に依存している。この故に彼等はカナダの最高裁判所が最終審でなく、その上に英國のプリヴィー・カウンシルへ上訴の途が開かれている從來の制度の維持を欲し、又英領北アメリカ法の修正權を英國議會より[illegible]

[illegible]英系は英國と歩調を共にする態度をとり、これに反し佛系は孤立主義的立場をとった。それは特に第二次大戰末期においてカナダ議會において大問題となり、マッケンジー・キングが散々悩みぬいた徴兵の問題に明確に[illegible]

カナダの政治は佛系でさえも[illegible]ケベック州を無視しては行われ得ない。[illegible]

新しき白人の國 アルゼンチン

大体アルゼンチンという國は、ある意味で世界の一つの秘境になっているから、いろいろな情報が日本には必しも傳えられていない。ペロニストのアルゼンチンはやはりある一つのイデオロギーを持っている。『ペロンは公約を守る』という標語とともに『アルゼンチンには、子供以外に特權階級[illegible]』という標語を持って[illegible]の建設が目指[illegible]

[illegible]て「子供の家」を作り、「青少年の國」を作り、その育成と教育とを計畫的に行っている。[illegible]子供の施設だけではない。勞働者の總合住宅は完備し、市民の社會設備は驚くほど整備している。「老人の家」も[illegible]世界の素晴しい養老院で[illegible]授産と娯樂とを持った近代ホテルのごときものである。

[illegible]ところのない廣野で、[illegible]羊が群れ、牛が遊ぶ。そのなかを[illegible]る自動車道路が延々と伸びる。自動車が八台、十台並んで走れる。ここに美しい人道、並木がある。ここに大理石のモザイックが作られ、その兩側に芝生があって、それに[illegible]刈り込まれている。人が刈るのではない。機械が刈る。日曜などには、自動車でドライブして、この芝生の上で辨當を開いている風景が見られる。草原に今日では林があり、森があり、今いのがある[illegible]

この土地には石がなかった。[illegible]原住民もいなかった。歐洲から移住者が移り住むと共に、木を運び、石を運び、家畜を運び、人類の文化を移し植えて新しき白人の國を作った。全く頭が下がる思いがする。私は北海道へは前後六、七度を旅した思い出がある。そのたびごとに[illegible]感じたことだが、北海道には[illegible]建物は[illegible]寒冷地にかかわらず木造の仮普請だし、農村には田畑にも固定設備がない。[illegible]

[illegible]政府が保護[illegible]一つの新しき國家の建設[illegible]明治初年以來何年[illegible]

陸軍機で一氣にオタワへ

吉田の外遊日程は今週中に決定發表

吉田首相一行が乘ることになつているカナダ太平洋航空會社では、日本政府は廿六日出發を豫定して、同社と座席豫約の交渉中であると語つているが、廿六日は日曜日で定期機はなく、或は臨時に一機を出すのではないかとみられており、首相一行が晩市に到着するのは二十七日、休養のため同地に一泊し、カナダ政府差廻しのカナダ陸軍機シー五號で途中一同給油の上、一氣にオタワに飛ぶことになるもよう。なお松平大使は首相一行を晩市に出迎えるはずであるが、一行の宿泊は費用節約のため、在外公邸を使用するものとみられる。カナダ政府では首相を國賓待遇として迎え、その準備を完了中である。

前に首相の外遊に關し、岡崎外相と打合せを行つたが若干の點できまつていない。出發の時期についても廿五日と廿六日のどちらにするか決つ[illegible]
